

United Methodist Marriage and Family Ministries Directory

By Jurisdiction/Episcopal Area/Annual Conference as of 12/31/2011

PURPOSE

As resource persons with passion for marriage ministry and special training in one or more marriage ministry programs, we eagerly seek opportunities to serve Christ by working to strengthen marriages and families. Our vision is for each home to become a "haven of blessing and peace" ¹ in which individuals are nourished to grow to their full potential. You may call on us for leadership and/or consultation for strengthening your ministries to couples and families. Most of us are United Methodist, but a few from other denominations have been included because of their experience with and willingness to work with United Methodist groups. New names will be added as information comes to us.

Listing in this directory does not necessarily indicate endorsement by the United Methodist General Board of Discipleship, except in the case of the Association for Couples in Marriage Enrichment, Marriage Encounter/Engaged Encounter United Methodist, and Marriage Enrichment, Inc., all of which have affiliate relationships with the GBOD. We tend to be partial to the particular marriage education or ministry program in which we first participated or which most effectively revitalized our own relationship. However, our common purpose and the similarities of our marriage-strengthening programs motivate us to reach out beyond competitiveness to work cooperatively wherever we can. We can learn from each other also! See the list of Marriage Ministry Organizations and Programs posted on this same site.

This directory provides contact information for resource persons who can assist in developing effective marriage ministries throughout our denomination. In addition I hope that by sharing information about our marriage ministries, we can encourage and inspire each other.

I maintain a separate list of persons interested in marriage ministries who do not consider themselves leaders or resource persons - or who do not want to receive requests at this time, but do want to know more about marriage ministries in our church. Please send information about other persons to be added to either of these lists to me at JaneIves@aol.com, or 10 Quaker Lane, Portland, Maine 04103, or call me at 207-797-8930.

In Christ's love and service,

Jane P. Ives

These and other Marriage and Family Ministry organizations and programs are described in the “Marriage and Family Ministries Resources Recommended by United Methodists” document posted at www.marriagelovepower.net and at www.gbod.org/marriage (scroll down to find this document). Many of these programs are also described in the Resources section of the Growing Love in Christian Marriage Pastor’s Manual (Nashville: The United Methodist Publishing House, 2001). CMP (Community Marriage Policy) contact information, which was provided by Marriage Savers, Inc., is included in a separate document at www.marriagelovepower.net. We encourage United Methodists to participate in these ecumenical projects for establishing common marriage preparation guidelines and sharing resources for marriage and family ministries.
